

Ruberoid... on Floors

Ruberoid roofing makes a splendid floor covering for an office or workroom. It is almost impossible to wear it out. It lays as smooth as linoleum and costs only one-fourth as much. As a roofing, it has no equal. It is absolutely waterproof, acid-proof and fire-resisting. It will last longer than tin, iron or shingles, and costs far less. No skill required to lay it.

HONOLULU AND PUNAHOU TAKE SATURDAY GAMES

TWO GOOD GAMES OF BALL WERE PLAYED SATURDAY—HONOLULU DEFEAT KAMEHAMEHA AND PUNAHOU BEST MAILE—REUTER PUT THE BALL OVER THE FENCE—JOY PITCHED A SPLENDID GAME—DESHA WAS WEAK.

STANDING OF THE TEAMS.

H. A. C.	Won.	Lost.	Cent.
H. A. C.	2	0	100
Oahu	2	0	100
Kama	1	1	50
Punahou	1	2	33
Mailes	0	3	00

SATURDAY'S SCORES.

Punahou 8; Maile 5.
Honolulu 16; Kamehameha 2.
The first game on last Saturday was in no wise a surprise. It was conceded that Punahou would win from Maile and by a small margin and the margin was so small that it was any one's game until the last inning when the Punahou took the game by a score of 8 to 5.

The fans did not seem to agree on the way the game was won some claimed that it was the poor playing of Punahou and other the good playing of the Maile that kept the score so close. One thing is certain, the Mailes are coming up the road of improvement as fast as is possible. They are having a streak of bad luck but some of these days they will have a kahuna working for them and then some one will be due for a good drubbing.

Punahou played a fairly good game. Her field work was ragged though and it was that alone that kept her in the same class with Maile. Desha on the slab did a few fancy stunts towards the end of the excitement but at first he was hit rather freely. This combined with poor fielding allowed the Mailes to romp about the bases as if they enjoyed it. Major at second let some good ones go by and he was weak with the willow. However just as the fans were getting ready with a roast he improved wonderfully and handled some hot ones.

One of the features of the game was a two base hit by George Desha on which he kept coming until he reached the plate. He neglected to touch third base on his way by and that cost him his tally. It was a grand run though and Desha deserved to have it given to him.

Meyer back of the bat did some fancy stunts in the throwing to second. The boy has a fine arm and he is a good judge of distance.

Defries went onto the slab for Maile. This team has a large number of slab artists of the second class order and they need only to fuse and then there will be something doing. Defries handled the horsehide well though and allowed only 8 hits. They were poorly handled in the field and Puns chalked up 8 runs for themselves.

The biggest improvement on the Maile team was the substitution of Carey for Chillingworth on third. Carey plays the game and Chillingworth is just a kid. And there you are. No doubt Chillingworth will make a star ball player someday but not until he gets a little more beef on that arm of his and a little more confidence. Carey plays the bag right.

Maile outfielders seemed a little slow on covering ground and will have to learn to start a little faster if they want to handle those long easy flies to the gardens.

Maile did some good work with the stick Saturday. They started in to put Desha out of the box but the old stage horse was not ready to go and they found that he was very much in the game before they were through with him.

The scorer got it down like this:

THE SECOND GAME.

Well, well, who would have thought it? Reuter and not Bob White won the first five dollars of the season. As pretty and clean a drive as a fan ever saw put the horsehide over the fence and far away. Then Reuter took his time and came home. And thereby hangs a tale. It was this very thing that lost the game for the Kams or at least allowed such a large score piled up against them. Every Kam that came to bat after that fatal drive of their captain's strove to equal it and some struck so hard that they fell down and some came as close as a foot to Joy's curves. Hard striking unless you hit the ball does not win the game as the Kams found out. They lost by a score of 2 to 16.

The boiler maker is the boy with the money. Time after time he would fill the bases up with the blue trousered players and then settle down and fan the remainder out. It was just like picking peaches for him. The only time he was really sore was the time he dropped an easy pop fly. He did not say anything but he did hate to look so easy to the fans. His little fan mill was in great working order and the boy certainly piled up the score for his team.

It was not so much the sticking of the Hons that won for them for they got seven runs off of one base hit. Why? Simply because of the errors that were made by the Kams. Eight errors are enough to sprinkle through a half dozen games.

Williams at second for the H. A. C's had an off day and came very near being roasted a time or two. He made one error that was excusable. The time he threw to first the ball slipped from his finger and went over the baseman's head and it was not so much the throw that lost as it was the accident. But Williams played a poor game at second though he was strong with the stick.

Gleason wasn't up to his usual form on the initial bag. The boy had a number of boils scattered about his body and was a little awkward on account of them. He scored a home run on a beautiful long drive to the fence.

Hons were strong on stealing bases. They got away with 13 altogether.

Reuter did not pitch his usual game for the reason that Jones could not hold him. He did not dare to throw as he can and that helped make the defeat so decided. Jones in the box was a little better. He even fanned one man.

The Kams out field was fearfully slow. Lemon is a frost. He let one easy one get away from him.
The game was very long and tedious. Each inning took much time and it was thought for a while that the game would not end until dark. However the boys hurried and got through in about three hours.
